Numb. 10323.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 18, to Tuesday June 21, 1763.

St James's, June 21.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Beverley, having been tranſmitted by William Burrow, Eſq; Chamber Clerk to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Beverley in the County of York.

WE your Majeſty's ever loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Beverley in the County of York, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon the happy Return of Peace: An Event moſt deſirable in its own Nature, and peculiarly intereſting to a Commercial Nation.

Your Majeſty's Wiſdom, which the moſt flattering Series of good Fortune could not miſlead, ſenſible that the Tide of Military Glory is ever the moſt dangerous when it is the moſt rapid, ſtopped the deſolating Hand of War, and reſtored to your Subjects, and in its Conſequences to all Europe, the Bleſſings of Peace: Bleſſings, which to us are the more dear, becauſe we have ſeen the great Ends of the War fully accompliſhed; the Injuries, which theſe Kingdoms have received from Foreign Powers, vindicated; their Ability to annoy us hereafter circumſcribed; our Colonies protected; and a vaſt Territory added to the Britiſh Empire.

Theſe are real Glories, which no Time can efface; no Faction obſcure. The Fame reſulting from Military Atchievments, however ſplendid and magnificent, is nevertheleſs accompanied with Calamity and Terror. But during this more happy Period, the liberal Attainments of Science, the copious Advantages of Commerce, and all the amiable Arts of Peace, will flouriſh under the Protection of a Prince of Virtues too exalted to derive His Fame from any other Source, than the true Happineſs of His People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Seventeenth Day of June, 1763.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Recorder, Juſtice, Capital Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Biſhops Caſtle in the County of Salop, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Peregrine Cuſt, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Recorder, Juſtice, Capital Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Biſhops Caſtle in the County of Salop.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Recorder, Juſtice, Capital Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Biſhops Caſtle, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with this our moſt humble and hearty Addreſs of Congratulation on the general Peace, which your Majeſty's Wiſdom has ſo ſeaſonably and honourably accompliſhed.

May Heaven long continue to your Majeſty, the Happineſs of ſeeing your united People ſecurely enjoying and thankfully acknowledging your paternal Care in every other as well as in this particular Inſtance; and may your Royal Deſcendants inherit with your Majeſty's Virtues, the Throne of theſe Kingdoms to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal, the Seventh Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Edward Deering, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſtys dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of new Romney, with a deep Senſe of Gratitude and Affection, beg Leave to Expreſs our ſincere Congratulations on the Concluſion of a juſt and honourable Peace.

It was with infinite Satisfaction we ſaw almoſt the whole of your Majeſty's Military Operations, (conceived with Wiſdom, and executed with Valour,) crowned on all Sides with Succeſs; and it is with additional Joy, we now behold them terminated with Glory.

We cannot too much admire and acknowledge your Majeſty's condeſcending Goodneſs, your tender and compaſſionate Regard to the unhappy Sharers in the Calamities of War, when, in the full Career of Victory and Triumph, you were graciouſly pleaſed to liſten to Terms of Accommodation, which might effectually confirm and ſecure thoſe two great Objects of your Majeſty's Concern, the Safety and Welfare of your faithful and affectionate People.

Long may the Nation continue to enjoy the Bleſſings of this ſalutary Event; and long may your Majeſty reign, there eſpecially, where Dominion is beſt eſtabliſhed, in the Hearts of your loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgeſſes of Monmouth, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgeſſes of Monmouth, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Corporation of Monmouth, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Return and Bleſſing of Peace, after the Ravages of a long, though ſucceſsful War, and accompanied with ſo large and extenſive a Ceſſion both of Territory and Commerce to your Majeſty and your Dominions.

Our Liberties are as dear to us as to others; but we are in no Pain for them under the Protection of a Prince of your Majeſty's Royal Virtues and Character. We are alſo Friends to Monarchy and the Dignity and juſt Rights and Perogatives of the Crown. We think them all compatible and conſiſtent with our Conſtitution, a Conſtitution ſo juſtly poiſed, and ſo wiſely adapted to the true Ends of Government, as to render it at once the Envy and Admiration of our Neighbours.

But we conceive there is a wide Difference between Liberty and Licentiouſneſs, between Patriotiſm and Faction; and when the latter puts on the Maſk of the former, and under that ſpecious Veil propagates and diffuſes its baneful Influence, we cannot conceal our Fears for its Increaſe, nor our Wiſhes to ſee it confined, by every neceſſary Conſtitutional Method, to the Limits preſcribed it by the Laws of our Country.

We have the greater Reaſon to expreſs our Fears for the Growth of this Evil, as it has lately ſhewn itſelf here in a Manner we are aſhamed to mention; but our Silence might paſs for Guilt, and we have the Satisfaction to be no Parties to or Encouragers of an Outrage we could not then prevent: We ſhall, however, ſhew it our ſtrongeſt Reſentment, and exert our utmoſt Endeavours to preſerve the Order and Tranquility of our Town, already ſettled, and to prevent ſuch Exceſſes for the Future.

Be pleaſed, Royal Sir, moſt graciouſly to accept theſe our Gratulations and Aſſurances, as the Dictates of that unfeigned Duty and Attachment we have for your Perſon and Government; and may your Majeſty long reign in the Hearts and Affections of an united, happy and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, the fourteenth Day of June, 1763, and in the Third Year of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Corporation of Bedford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Richard Vernon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Corporation of Bedford, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Corporation of Bedford, humbly preſume to preſent to your Majeſty this our Addreſs upon the Return of Peace.

The Ravages of War had made ſufficient Havock through the Globe, when your Majeſty, ever attentive to promote the Happineſs of Mankind, put an End to the further Effuſion of human Blood, by concluding a Peace as honourable as we hope it will be laſting.

That your Majeſty may uninterruptedly enjoy that Peace, which you have given to others; and that all your Subjects, from a Principle of Gratitude, may endeavour to increaſe its Bleſſings by their Unanimity; and that the Voice of Sedition may never be heard in our Streets, are our moſt earneſt Wiſhes.

Count Woronzow, Grand Chancellor of Ruſſia, who is going to take a Tour in the Empire to drink ſome Medicinal Waters for the Recovery of his Health, is expected here very ſoon.

Copenhagen, June 11. The Sea Cadets embarked the 6th inſtant, on board the Frigate appointed for their Summer Exerciſe.

All the Regiments that were drawn from hence for the Service in Holſtein, are now come back, and generally ſettled in their former Quarters, the Norvegians being come Home, except a few, who ſtill wait here for Tranſports.

The fatal Diſtemper among the Cattle rages more than ever. We hear of its ſpreading continually both in Jutland and Holſtein; and ſeveral Diſtricts in this Iſland, which had been free from it hitherto, are now infected.
